

Wiggly Worms!

What makes a home in the soil beneath your feet? Earth worms!

These wiggly creatures make their homes in the dirt. They eat mold off of rotten leaves. The leftover leaves add nutrients to the soil.

Worms help plants to grow. Their tunnels make room for the roots to dig deep and reach water. Worms help many gardens grow!